A resident in the audience was complaining about an animal in her bedroom and animal control will not help her. No one will help her. Joe told her to go to the police dept. as we couldn't do anything for her. She kept talking. Joe asked her to approach the microphone.

Marie Wilson – 200 North Delsea Dr., Apt. A – She has an animal in her apartment some type of rodent and she has been asking the State for help. She has asked animal control to put a trap in her bedroom but it's not catching anything. She is scared. She needs temporary help to live somewhere. She's waiting for an apartment but she can't stay in this place. The Mayor requested that she give me her contact information to give to him.
